"Listening As A Spiritual Journey"

"Listening is the oldest and perhaps most powerful tool of healing...Our listening creates sanctuary for the homeless parts within the other person." (Rachel Naomi Remen)

Sharon Browning is the founder of "JUST Listening," a program which fosters personal, organizational, and social change and transformation through the practice of conscious, intentional, compassionate, and non-judgmental communication skills. JUST Listening is premised upon the beliefs that:

- Being heard empowers the speaker.
- People hold the solutions to their own problems.
- Skilled listening is creative, opening up new possibilities for all involved, and can be a powerful tool for personal and social change.
- Although rarely consulted or listened to, people on the social margins are the best source of information and ideas about the issues facing them.
- Skilled listening is possible only when one is actively cultivating self-awareness and regular habits of reflection.

Sharon Browning currently provides JUST Listening consultation and training to a wide range of organizations. She is the former Executive Director of Philadelphia VIP (Volunteers for the Indigent Program, the hub of pro bono legal services in Philadelphia). Ms. Browning has taught for fifteen years in the Sociology Department at Chestnut Hill College, Philadelphia. She is a trained mediator, as well as a retreat facilitator, spiritual guide and teacher, focusing on the needs of marginalized individuals and groups.

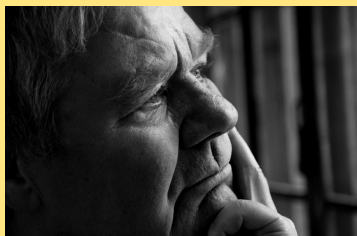

Join us at Generations of Indian Valley, where Ms. Browning will present a program focusing on the art of JUST Listening. The presentation will be followed by a time of light refreshments.
